

Orange Blossoms.

THE "Colonist's" Cambewarra correspondent writes:—The Marriage of Mr. Wesley Binks, second son of Mr. Thomas Binks, with Miss Isabella Maxwell was celebrated at the Cambewarra church on Wednesday last. The old church was made to look quite gay by a number of tastefully arranged floral decorations including the motto, "Lord, bless this union," together with the initials of the bride and bridegroom. There was a large congregation, and the hearty congratulations at the close of the ceremony on the part of a large number of friends showed the estimation in which both were held, personally and as being closely connected with old and much respected families in the district. The Rev. H. M. Trickett was the celebrant, and as the couple drove off to the residence of Mr. John Campa (the bride's brother-in-law) they were greeted with the customary shower of rice by way of wishing them good luck. The bridesmaids were Miss Maxwell and Miss Mattie Binks. Mr. John Binks was best man. Miss Allen acted as organist.

On Wednesday a quiet wedding was celebrated at the Goulburn Wesleyan Church by the Rev. J. W. Winspear, between Mr. Henry E. Rippon, of Barber's Creek, and Miss A. Parmenter, of Berrima.